BEST WISHES

We all send our fellow Board Member, Reverend Ernie Harris our best wishes for a speedy recovery from his hip replacement. He is currently recovering at home after an extended stay in Hotel Dieu. He will be missed until he is able to return.

VOLUNTEERS

Thanks to our president, Lina, our volunteer engagement committee is off and running. Two of our volunteers, Becky Davidson and Jo-Dee Brown have been given updated copies of our volunteer materials, list of volunteers and contact details. Their first task was contacting the volunteers on a personal level to detail their engagement and future wishes with the program.

Thank you to both Becky and Jo-Dee for beginning the process of refreshing our volunteers. They have begun to touch base with all of our current active volunteers, getting updates and recommitting them to service.

With the most current information, we hope to better utilize our volunteers when scheduling them for future events. There are a few volunteer recruitment fairs coming soon that Tyler will be attending to help drive new interest in the program.

C.C. GOLF TOURNAMENT

Tyler Lampier

We had an AMAZING tournament this year. On August 22, Crime Stoppers had 40 foursomes teed off for a wonderful day of golf.

Everything came together really nicely, from the weather to the amazing games on the course and the food at The Keg! All of our volunteers went the extra mile and made the day extra enjoyable for all the golfers. I received a number of compliments that our volunteers made their day better. Thank you to all the volunteers and participants.

We netted approximately $17,500 for the event.

35TH ANNIVERSARY PARTY

Windsor and Essex County Crime Stoppers will be celebrating it's 35th anniversary on April 25th, 2020, at the Caboto Club. Come have an enjoyable evening meeting current and former Crime Stopper board members as well as many of the movers and shakers of the Windsor and Essex County community. More details are to come in the next issue and on the web page catcrooks.com

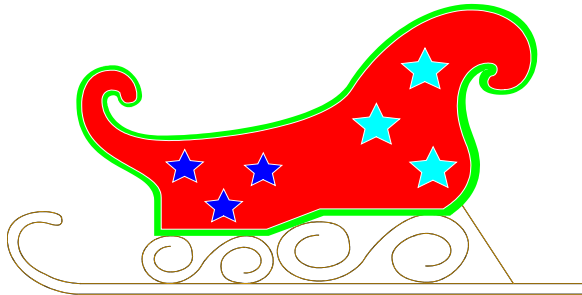

On 9/18/19 Crime Stoppers attended the cheque presentation for our van at the Optimist Club. Thank you to the Saint Clair Beach Optimist Club for their generous support for the Windsor and Essex County Crime Stoppers. program

THE NEW GORDIE HOWE INTERNATIONAL BRIDGE PROJECT

Kristina Gilboe

The Windsor and Essex County Crime Stoppers is excited to be partnering with the RCMP, the Gordie Howe International Bridge Authority and Michigan Crime Stoppers in the new Bridge project.

New Crime Stoppers signage will be placed in various areas throughout the construction sites on both sides of the border. This signage will remind construction workers that they can do their part in reporting crime.

CHUCK A PUCK

We will be doing one Chuck A Puck on a date yet to be determined.

The Spitfires want the event to be held AFTER the game instead of during the 2nd intermission.

This event will be a test to see if after the game is a worthwhile alternative for us.
